RECIPE 01 · MODERN · DINNER

Crisp maple-tamari tofu over fluffy quinoa with charred zucchini, carrot ribbons and a zingy lemon-herb drizzle.

Serves 2 | Prep 15 min | Cook 25 min | Easy

Vegan | Low-FODMAP | Gluten-Free | Vegetarian

Ingredients

for 2 servings

BOWL

- 3/4 cup quinoa, rinsed
- 400 g firm tofu , pressed 10 minutes
- 1 medium zucchini , sliced into half-moons
- 1 large carrot , peeled into ribbons
- 2 cups baby spinach
- 1 cup cherry tomatoes , halved
- 2 tbsp pumpkin seeds , toasted

GLAZE

- 1 1/2 tbsp tamari (gluten-free)
- 1 tbsp maple syrup
- 1 tbsp cornstarch

LEMON-HERB DRIZZLE

- 3 tbsp garlic-infused olive oil
- 1 lemon , zest and juice
- 1/4 cup parsley, finely chopped
- 2 spring onion, green parts only , sliced
- salt and pepper

Method

1. Simmer the quinoa in 1 1/2 cups salted water, covered, for 15 minutes. Turn off the heat and leave the lid on for 5 minutes, then fluff.
2. Cut the pressed tofu into 2 cm cubes and toss with the cornstarch and a pinch of salt.
3. Heat 1 tbsp of the garlic-infused oil in a large non-stick pan. Fry the tofu for 8–10 minutes, turning, until golden on all sides.
4. Whisk the tamari and maple syrup, pour over the tofu and toss for 1 minute until sticky and glazed. Set aside.
5. In the same pan, char the zucchini for 3–4 minutes over high heat. Wilt the spinach in for the last 30 seconds.
6. Whisk the remaining oil with the lemon zest, juice, parsley, spring onion greens, salt and pepper.
7. Divide the quinoa between bowls, top with tofu, vegetables, carrot ribbons and tomatoes, then spoon over the drizzle and scatter with pumpkin seeds.

DIET SWAPS USED

garlic » garlic-infused oil
Fructans in garlic don't dissolve in oil, so you keep the flavour without the FODMAPs.

onion » spring onion greens
The green tops are low-FODMAP; the white bulbs are not.

soy sauce » tamari (gluten-free)
Regular soy sauce is brewed with wheat.
